2020 WINIFRED E. PREEDY UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP
$1,000

The Australian Federation of University Women - South Australia Inc. (AFUW-SA Inc.) Trust Fund is offering the above scholarship for the year 2020. Money for this award is provided from the bequest of Winifred E. Preedy BDS (1901-1989), a devoted Life Member of AFUW-SA Inc., who graduated in 1927, the second woman to graduate BDS in The University of Adelaide.

Eligibility: This scholarship is open to women undergraduates who are Australian citizens or permanent residents, studying in the Dental School at the end of their first year up to fourth year, to further their studies in dentistry at The University of Adelaide. Women in full time paid employment or on fully paid leave during the tenure of the scholarship are not eligible to apply, nor are previous winners of this scholarship.

How a scholarship may be used: The scholarship is envisaged primarily as a short-term aid to assist with the completion of the 2020 academic year. Examples of purposes for which the scholarship may be used are equipment or book costs, fees incurred because of study commitments, and short-term assistance with living expenses.

Selection criteria: The selection of the scholarship winner is based primarily on the following criteria: academic merit, financial need and the purpose for which the scholarship is sought. All of the information presented in the application will be taken into account.

Application attachments: The application form must be accompanied by

1. certified copies of official transcripts of academic records covering all undergraduate work completed to the end of 2019;
2. evidence of enrolment in 2020, e.g. letter of confirmation from the university or an academic record showing units in which you are currently enrolled;
3. curriculum vitae, including employment record; education and training history; a list of prizes or awards held during your tertiary studies, giving place of study, dates and values; any other achievements related to your academic study; and service to the community at large.
4. If you are not an Australian or New Zealand citizen you must provide proof of your permanent residency status.

N.B. If originals of documents are sent, they will not be returned; unsuccessful applications will be destroyed 2 months after the scholarship is awarded.

Four sets of all documentation must be submitted including one original (or certified copy) and three photocopies of the application form and attachments to:
